

18 Cover

Leading off A&U's Sixth Annual Summer Reading Issue, Lester Strong Talks with Writer Andrew Holleran About New York City Before & After the Early Days of the Pandemic, Plus an Excerpt from Holleran's New Volume of AIDS Essays—Sheridan Square

Features

16 Gallery

Heart of Glass: D.C.-Based Glass Blower Tim Tate Finds Clarity in the Healing Power of Creativity

15 Ruby's Rap

Dance, Dance, Revolution: Singer Arnold G Pays Tribute to Everyone's Efforts to End the Pandemic

24 Romantic Bliss, Dogs, and a Writer's Life

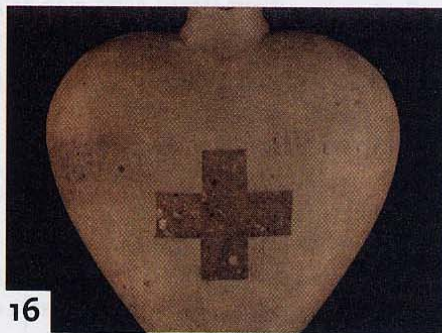

Mouse Tale: Writer Armistead Maupin Catches Up with Michael Tolliver—Over Fifty, HIV-Positive & Falling in Love

23 Fiction

Blood by Zdravka Evtimova

25 Poetry

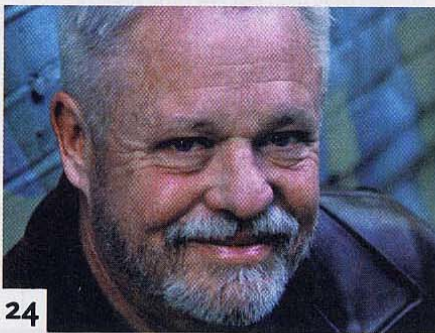

by Chip Livingston & Lisa Albers

16

15

24

Departments

4 Frontdesk

7 Mailbox

8 NewsBreak

A&U profiles Lutheran Family Health Centers, a Community-Based Provider Responding to the Diverse Needs of Our Most AIDS-Affected Area—Brooklyn

VIEWFINDER

12 Left Field

by Patricia Nell Warren

14 Letters from Here

LIFEGUIDE

26 Treatment Horizons

30 Lifelines

30 HIV + Me

32 The Scene